

Matthew 10:5-15 Instructions to the Twelve as Jesus sent them out

5 These twelve Jesus sent out and commanded them, saying: "Do not go into the way of the Gentiles, and do not enter a city of the Samaritans. 6 But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. 7 And as you go, preach, saying, 'The kingdom of heaven is at hand.' 8 "Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out demons. Freely you have received, freely give. 9 Provide neither gold nor silver nor copper in your money belts, 10 nor bag for your journey, nor two tunics, nor sandals, nor staffs; for a worker is worthy of his food. 11 Now whatever city or town you enter, inquire who in it is worthy, and stay there till you go out. 12 And when you go into a household, greet it. 13 If the household is worthy, let your peace come upon it. But if it is not worthy, let your peace return to you. 14 And whoever will not receive you nor hear your words, when you depart from that house or city, shake off the dust from your feet. 15 Assuredly, I say to you, it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment than for that city!  - ❖ That includes the blessings and abundance promised Israel for obedience to God's laws. [Joshua 21:45, 23:14, 1 Kings 8:56]
 - ❖ It also includes the curses and punishments promised Israel for disobedience toward God's laws. The Holocaust of the second world war is a prime example.
 - ❖ It includes the remnant God promised to keep of the Children of Israel.
 - ❖ It includes the Messiah Who would be the fulfillment of God's promise to Abraham, that "In your seed, all the nations of the earth will be blessed."
